RACE HISTORY

It's more than four decades since the Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup was inaugurated at Sha Tin Racecourse. In that time, a host of Hong Kong racing's equine greats have carried off the Gold Cup and today the contest is an international Group 1 race worth HK$13 million.

The victory roll features standouts such as River Verdon, Golden Sixty, Indigenous, Bullish Luck, Vengeance Of Rain, Viva Pataca, Ambitious Dragon, Military Attack, Designs On Rome, Werther, Exultant, Time Warp and Russian Emperor. Notable among the race's early winners are Silver Lining, Co-Tack, Gay Eighties and Yuno When, but the distinction of being the first ever Hong Kong Gold Cup winner will forever belong to Observatory, trained by Allan Chan and ridden by the great Pat Eddery, who took the spoils on 14 January, 1979.

That initial contest was an 1800m affair and it was not until 1993 that the race distance changed to its now familiar 2000m. One year earlier the race was granted HKG1 status and formed the second leg of the newly-established Hong Kong Triple Crown, sandwiched between the Stewards' Cup (1600m) and Champions & Chater Cup (2400m). Citi Group has sponsored the Hong Kong Gold Cup since 2008.

River Verdon won the first HKG1 edition in 1992 and proceeded to rattle off a hat-trick of Gold Cup wins - a feat unmatched by any horse to date. His 1993 triumph was the middle leg of a famous Triple Crown triumph, the first and only in Hong Kong racing history.

John Moore is the race's most successful trainer, having won the Hong Kong Gold Cup on 12 occasions, including nine since 2006. Tony Cruz and Douglas Whyte are the only successors in the race as a jockey and trainer. Cruz won twice as a jockey and boasts seven wins as a trainer, including three consecutive editions with Time Warp in 2018 and 2020, while Exultant triumphed in 2019. Meanwhile, Whyte won aboard Indigenous and Ambitious Dragon in 1999 and 2012, respectively, before achieving another milestone with Russian Emperor in 2022 as a trainer. The race's winning-most riders are Darren Beadman, Basil Marcus, Joao Moreira and Zac Purton with three wins apiece. It was ranked equal 33rd in the IFHA's World's Top 100 G1 Races in 2023.

2023 CITI HONG KONG GOLD CUP

Golden Sixty overhauled Romantic Warrior in a gripping finish to the G1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup (2000m) at Sha Tin – the second leg of Hong Kong's Triple Crown – under jockey Vincent Ho for trainer Francis Lui.

Sporting the familiar white, blue and gold silks of owner Stanley Chan, Golden Sixty handed Romantic Warrior his first defeat over the course and distance to assert his dominance in the city as he edged past his rival by a head in a winning time of 1m 59.98s.

Victorious in the 2021 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup, Golden Sixty broke cleanly under Ho before restraining to sit fifth. Money Catcher took up his customary spot in front, while Ka Ying Star sat to his outside with Romantic Warrior in between the lead duo.

Ho stalked the pace aboard Golden Sixty before stoking Hong Kong's champion up at the turn for home – trailing just in behind Karis Teetan as he did the same atop Romantic Warrior. The pair tore clear in the straight with Golden Sixty reeling in his rival, much like he did in the first leg of the Triple Crown – the G1 Stewards' Cup (1600m).

"He was very relaxed today, I even had to ask him a little to keep up today in the back straight and, of course, I had another great horse to follow through and ask for the full effort at the 200 (metre mark)," Ho said. "I just had to stay close with him (Romantic Warrior) and don't let him get away too far."

Money Catcher finished third, while Glorious Dragon grabbed fourth.
