With such a big field this will be a cavalry charge spread across Newmarket Heath. The pace will be very fast, ABATE probably contesting the lead with DESERT COP on the stands' side. Likely favourite SUMMERGHAND always picks his way through traffic in the closing stages and will launch a challenge from well back. He is often unlucky in-running. Others likely to finish well are the in-form MUMS TIPPLE and ROHAAN.

Quite a big field could result in some hard luck stories for horses coming from off the pace. KILLYBEGS WARRIOR and HAFEET ALAIN are likely to cut out the running. Well fancied DUTCH DECOY should be prominent on the far side. Likely favourite TORITO is usually held-up and will have to come through traffic. BOPEDRO and THEORYOFEVERYTHING also have strong chances and will be swooping late.

TEES SPIRIT went very quickly in front when winning on his seasonal debut last time and is almost certain to look to repeat those tactics. BEAUTIFUL DIAMOND also scored off the front on the final start off her 2YO campaign and is likely to be up with the pace. TWILIGHT CALLS comes from behind as does KERDOS.

This should be run at good pace despite there not really being any committed front-runners in the line-up. The big two, CITY OF TROY and ROSALLION, both raced prominently last time, the former actually leading in the Dewhurst, but they look likely to tuck in behind pacesetters on this occasion. Outsider INESHERIN and the unexposed NIGHT RAIDER are likely to be furthest forwards. Goldophin's NOTABLE SPEECH has tended to come from behind and may bring up the rear. With a low draw getting cover may be a problem for CITY OF TROY.

No out-and-out front-runners in the line-up. TO CATCH A THIEF led when winning at Newcastle and may revert to those tactics given he could get an easy lead. MAXI KING usually races prominently and could come next with HOPE YOU CAN RUN and KNIGHTSWOOD. REAL DREAM is normally held up and will be staying on down in distance. RELENTLESS VOYAGER in contrast will probably be held up to get the trip.

Big field on the straight course and a strong pace seems very likely. JUNGLE MAC looks the most likely leader, contesting with PUREFOY and RUN BIY RUN. An outsider that may make a bid from the back if the pace collapses in INDIVAR.

LARADO and SUDDEN AMBUSH will probably contest a fast pace. FARASI LANE, BYSTANDER and PJANOO all tend to race prominently and will be up there. ROWAYEH and CRACK SHOT will probably have to navigate traffic to land a late blow. EPSOM FAITHFULL stormed home last time at Lingfield and could get into it close home.
