RACE HISTORY

The Hong Kong Derby was first staged in 1873, 11 years before the formation of The Hong Kong Jockey Club, and, with the exception of the war years in the 20th Century, has been an annual social and sporting highlight ever since. The race is the most prestigious local event in Hong Kong racing and offers once-in-a-lifetime glory to each winner.

Since 1981, the Hong Kong Derby has been exclusive to four-year-old horses and is the race that often determines that generation's outstanding champion. The race was established, as with all Derbys around the world, in the tradition of the original Derby, first staged at Epsom, England in 1780. The Hong Kong Derby is today one of the world's most lucrative Derbys in the world, with prize money of HK$26 million on offer, compared to a purse of HK$30,000 when Hong Kong racing's professional era commenced in the 1971/72 season.

Initially run at 2400m, the distance of the Hong Kong Derby has varied down the years, but was at 1800m from 1977 until it was increased to its current 2000m in 2000. BMW has sponsored the race since 2013.

The 1980s and 1990s saw several Derby heroes crowned Hong Kong's Horse of the Year - Football (1982), Co-Tack (1983), Yuno When (1986), River Verdon (1991), Makarpura Star (1995) – and after 2010 the brilliant Ambitious Dragon (2011), Designs On Rome (2014), Werther (2016) and Rapper Dragon (2017) have taken Hong Kong's top accolade at the end of their Derby-winning campaigns.

Golden Sixty (2020) emulated Rapper Dragon's (2017) feat to become the second horse ever in sweeping all three legs of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series. Golden Sixty's trainer Francis Lui and jockey Vincent Ho also became the first Chinese trainer-jockey partnership to win the Derby, since trainer Brian Kan and jockey Paul Cheng saddled Yuno When to win the 1986 renewal. Vincent Ho was also the first home grown Derby winning jockey since Tony Cruz's success aboard Makarpura Star in 1995.

In tandem with Hong Kong racing as a whole, the overall quality of Hong Kong's four-year-olds has improved since the turn of the century. The 2005 Derby winner, Vengeance Of Rain, went on to become the first Hong Kong horse to win an overseas Group 1 when he collected the 2007 edition of the Dubai Sheema Classic. Viva Pataca, the 2006 Derby hero, twice won the QEII Cup (2007 & 2010) and was runner-up in the Dubai Sheema Classic. 2013 victor Akeed Mofeed followed up with an international triumph in that year's LONGINES Hong Kong Cup, 2014 winner Designs On Rome and 2022 winner Romantic Warrior prevailed to win in the QEII Cup and the LONGINES Hong Kong Cup.

Golden Sixty, victorious in 2020, added a further ten Group 1 victories after his Derby win in the LONGINES Hong Kong Mile (2020, 2021 & 2023), Stewards' Cup (2021 & 2023), Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup (2021 & 2023) and FWD Champions Mile (2021, 2022 & 2023), and was crowned Hong Kong's Horse of the Year in 2020/21, 2021/22 & 2022/23. In addition, Golden Sixty was also rated joint-top miler in the 2021 LONGINES World's Best Racehorse Rankings, while in 2022, both Golden Sixty and Romantic Warrior, rated 124 and tied for eighth in the year-end list globally. In 2023, both champions, Golden Sixty and Romantic Warrior, ranked inside the top 15.

Romantic Warrior, winner of the 2022 BMW Hong Kong Derby, also added ten Group 1 victories after his Derby score, including three from other racing jurisdictions – the 2023 W.S. Cox Plate (2040m) in Australia, 2024 Yasuda Kinen (1600m) in Japan and 2025 Jebel Hatta (1800m) in Dubai.

Able Friend, second in 2014, went on to achieve the highest ever rating by a Hong Kong horse (127) when co-third in that year's World's Best Racehorse Rankings. And Beauty Generation, third behind Rapper Dragon in 2017, followed Able Friend's footsteps to become a multiple G1-winning miler, Horse of the Year, and also lead the World's Best Racehorse Rankings.

Three fillies have won the Hong Kong Derby in the professional era, Vivacious in 1972, Corvette in 1976 and Elegant Fashion in 2003.

BMW HONG KONG DERBY 2024

LAST YEAR'S RACE

Former Irish stayer Massive Sovereign completed an extraordinary rise to glory with a spectacular win in the HK$26 million 2024 BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m) under Zac Purton at Sha Tin.

Providing Dennis Yip with his first triumph in the Classic and Purton's second after Luger in 2015, Massive Sovereign clocked the fastest time in Derby history – 1m 59.85s – since the race distance was changed to 2000m in 2000, bettering champion Golden Sixty's time of 2m 00.15s, set in 2020.

In a thrilling finish, Massive Sovereign charged from the tail of the field to beat Galaxy Patch by a neck. Front-runner Ka Ying Generation was a neck further back in third place as all three place-getters broke two minutes on the good to firm surface.

Formerly known as Broadhurst when trained by Aidan O'Brien in Ireland, Massive Sovereign was having only his second Hong Kong start after having secured a place in the BMW Hong Kong Derby with a stunning debut win over the same course and distance.

Massive Sovereign sat at the rear of the field before gradually edging closer while tracking Helios Express, who was bidding for a clean sweep of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series after snaring both the Hong Kong Classic Mile (1600m) and the Hong Kong Classic Cup (1800m).

While Helios Express finished eighth, Massive Sovereign emerged from a chasing pack to stymie Andrea Atzeni's daring all-the-way bid on Ka Ying Generation – who threatened to defy his 39/1 odds after sweeping to a five-length lead at the 400m.

Weaving into clear running, Massive Sovereign responded strongly under a desperate Purton with a final sectional of 22.58s to overhaul a courageous Ka Ying Generation, while also defying Galaxy Patch, who clocked 22.40s for the last 400m.

Hong Kong champion trainer in 2012/13, Yip revelled in the most important success of his career.

"It's very exciting. I think the Derby for me is more important than the championship...but this one for my life is the big one," Yip said. "I'm very happy, it's amazing for my life. What a memory."

"I feel extremely honoured and privileged to have found such a horse to win it. To win the race itself, it's the most prestigious race in Hong Kong and I've had a frustrating run in this race and a frustrating season, so it's nice to get another big one – and probably the biggest one among the local races overall," said Purton.

"He's shown us so far that he's the ideal horse here in Hong Kong and he's got such a good attitude. He just takes everything in his stride since he got here. I loved him in the mornings, you love a lot of horses in the morning but they don't turn up on race days – this guy has turned up on race day so far.

"I'm not sure how good he's going to be, only time will tell but he's done a good job so far."
