

Wondering through Old Town Central with Lunch

Departure on 19 Sep (Tue) & 20 Sep (Wed)

- Highlights: Spend your day with our knowledgeable local tour guide to the Western District, the old section of Hong Kong Island. It is well-known for an abundance of local legends and historical buildings. It is a vibrant hub for culture, commerce and tourism in Hong Kong through the ages.
- Itinerary: Western District, Hollywood Street, Man Mo Temple, Dim Sum Lunch & Tai Kwun
Inclusive of all transportation, private air-conditioned coach, entrance ticket, lunch with a local beer, bottled water and knowledgeable local tour guide.
- Duration: 09:30 – 16:30 (7 hours)
- Tour Price: HK$800/US$104 per person (minimum 10 persons)
- Remarks: HK$400/US$52 per person (Optional for Traditional Chinese costume – Qipao Rental for photo taking)

To start off the visit of the Western District, we will explore the specialty shops selling salted fish, various dried seafood products, Ginseng, Bird's Nest and Herbal Medicine. This is a good way to learn about Chinese-traditional eating habits.

Hollywood Road, let's pause for a moment at Man Mo Temple which is over 170 years old and is officially declared as a monument in 2010. Its giant hanging incense coils makes for a pleasant contrast with the hectic pace of the city. Hollywood Road (Antique Street) is best-known for their curio and antiques shops. The Lascar Row (Cat Street) is full of vendors selling inexpensive pottery, jewelry, ornaments, coins, and carvings. These streets are of great fun to haggle and hunt for old trinkets.

Enjoy a yummy dim sum lunch at a local restaurant. Try our Mid-Levels Escalator and Walkway System where you can enjoy the local street scenes and distinctive city views built on a hillside. Dedicated Tai Kwun guided tour will allow you to explore the historical significance of this unique heritage site including the former Central Police Station Compound, Central Magistracy and Victoria Prison Compound.

Unique & Hong Kong Highlight Route with Lunch*Departure on 18 Sep (Mon) & 21 Sep (Thu)*

- Highlights: Spend your day with our knowledgeable local tour guide to experience our unparalleled Hong Kong Tour from every angle, from stunning skyline and breathtaking landscapes to the former fishing village
- Itinerary: Star Ferry, Peak Tram, Victoria Peak, Lunch and Aberdeen
Inclusive of all transportation tickets, ferry, sampan ride, private air-conditioned coach, lunch with a local beer, bottle water and knowledgeable local tour guide.
- Duration: 09:30 – 16:30 (7 hours)
- Tour Price: HK$865/US$ 113 per person (minimum 10 persons)

Drop by the Tsim Sha Tsui Promenade to enjoy the magnificent Victoria Harbour and Hong Kong's iconic skyline. The Avenue of Stars is a boardwalk which honors the actors, filmmakers, producers and directors of Hong Kong's movie industry. You can even take a photo and interact with Bruce Lee who was the founder of Jeet Kune Do and was a Chinese Kung Fu superstar, by using Augmented Reality technology.

Take a ride on the HK Star Ferry to enjoy the magnificent Victoria Harbour view. Then catch the Peak Tram to the Victoria Peak, 552m above sea level, the highest point on Hong Kong Island. Unlike the other tour operator, our tour guide will accompany you for the Peak Circle Walk which offers stunning views of the city for Hong Kong Island's scenic north and south sides, and panoramic views of the city and the Victoria Harbour.

Lunch will be served on the Peak before heading to Aberdeen.

Aberdeen cannot be missed when you are in Hong Kong. It was a traditional fishing village. Many fishermen lived on various sized fishing boats moored in the typhoon shelter. With the decline of traditional fisheries industry, many fishermen have moved to live onshore. Let's charter a sampan boat, shuttling you back and forth to trace the former glory of a fishing village.

New Territories Tour with Lunch

Departure on 19 Sep (Tue) & 20 Sep (Wed)

- Highlights: Spend your day with our knowledgeable local tour guide to the New Territories (N.T.), so named when the British took more land from China in 1898. Often ignored by travelers who have little time to spare, the New Territories offers a diverse landscape that takes time to get to know.
- Itinerary: Old Hong Kong NT Government Office Building & Tai Po Police Station, Tai Wo Street market, Fan Ling Wai walled village, Lunch & Lung Mei Beach.
Inclusive of all transportation, entrance ticket, private air-conditioned coach, lunch and knowledgeable local tour guide.
- Duration: 09:30 – 16:30 (7 hours)
- Tour Price: HK$850/US$110 per person (minimum 10 persons)

We will be spending our time mostly in Tai Po, which lies in the northeast of the New Territories and has a history dating back to the Tang Dynasty (618 - 907).

First stop will be to the Old District Office (North) which was declared a monument in 1981. It is a typical colonial-style structure of the early 20th century. Finished in fine red bricks, with open verandahs and brick arches along its east and west elevations, it is a stately and elegant building. It has not been significantly altered. The antique fireplaces in the rooms are still well-preserved, which helps to bring out the historical character of the building.

Tai Po was one of the market towns that was selected to be expanded into a satellite town in 1972. Let's follow your guide to walk through the time capsule – Tai Wo Market Street!

Without visiting a walled village, you can't say you have been to Hong Kong! With special arrangement, we have invited the Fanling Wai's Village head to lead us through the entrance gate of the walled village and showcase the ancient times to the present.

Drive to Tai Mei Tuk, a favourite leisure spot for local residents for activities like barbecue, fly kites, go cycling, water spot or fishing. There are more than a dozen roadside restaurants for us to choose for lunch. Afterwards, we will walk up to the main dam of Plover Cove Reservoir, to enjoy spectacular views of the reservoir on one side and Tolo Harbour on the other. We can take a stroll on the Lung Mei Beach too.
